WHY CREDIT MATTERS

Your credit report affects more than you think. Your score doesn't just determine if you qualify for credit, it also impacts how much you pay for that credit. And the truth is, a bad credit report benefits only the creditor, who can use your score to justify charging higher interest rates.

But your credit report is not written in stone. By leveraging the law to ensure you have an accurate and fair report, Lexington Law works with you to help you live the life you deserve.

WHAT WE DO

We do credit repair.

Did you know that over 40 million Americans have an error on their credit report? Errors may come as a result of student loans, medical debt or even identity theft, and could significantly lower your score.

Lexington Law has a proven record of identifying and challenging these questionable negative errors.

Don't wait. Call 1.844.764.9831
and get your credit back on track.

WHAT YOUR CREDIT IS WORTH

Good credit can help you secure better loans at better interest rates, saving you thousands of dollars over the lifetime of a loan. Don't trust your credit repair to just anyone—a little effort with Lexington Law could save you a lot of headache on future loans.

40 points on your credit report could save you $33,000 on a 30-year loan.

That's over:

14,000 gallons of gas

3,800 movie tickets

30 five-day cruise vacations for a family of four

HOW WE DO IT

Our tried and true credit repair process has already helped thousands of Americans improve their credit report. Here's how we do it.

Research

We start by collecting information about your existing credit report, creating a plan to suit your specific situation.

Challenge

Next, we open a dialogue with creditors, debt collectors and bureaus on your behalf, starting the intervention process.

Follow Up

We leverage the law to keep your cases moving forward, informing you of our progress along the way.

Coach

At any time within this cycle, we're ready to answer your questions and teach you how to better manage your credit.

WHO WE DO IT FOR

"It's only been three months and reports on my credit have started to fall off. Just today I got an email that two other errors have been removed. Because of Lexington Law, I'm going to have a lot more opportunities open to me financially."

- George

"I feel like I have hope now because I see these items being removed and I know what I can do to help my credit score."

- Lisa

"I called Lexington Law, the representatives were awesome! They were amazing, loving, warming and they listened—So I just went all in. The things I'm impressed with, with Lexington Law, is the customer service and the speed and the results I'm getting. I have hope now because of Lexington Law giving me that second shot and repairing my credit."

*Not all clients saw such a result as all legal cases are different. You should not expect to see the same result and it is not guaranteed.

**The number of items removed represents the combined removals of all clients for all three credit bureaus that occur during the client's representation. For example, if a single, questionable negative item is removed from all three reports, it is counted as three separate removals.
